New or Renewal of Licence Application Form

Section 83, Arms Act 2026

Information Sheet

This application form is for all applicants applying for:

1. a new business licence; OR
2. a new business licence with Pistol, or Restricted weapons, or Restricted firearms, or Restricted magazines endorsement(s); OR
3. renewal of their business licence (and endorsements); OR
4. Pistol, or Restricted weapons, or Restricted firearms or Restricted magazines endorsement(s) on their business licence.

Who needs a business licence?

You must hold a business licence to carry on any of the following activities:

- the business of selling, hiring, lending, or otherwise supplying a class of arms items
- possessing, for the purposes of an auction, a class of arms items
- the business of repairing or modifying a class of arms items
- the business of manufacturing for sale, hire, lending, or other supply a class of arms items
- manufacturing for the purposes of permitted supply of restricted magazines and restricted parts and using restricted items to test and demonstrate those restricted parts (Section 6(1)(a)(v)).

A body corporate can also conduct any of the above activities only if a senior manager of the body corporate has a business licence authorising the manager to carry on the activities in relation to a class of arms items on behalf of the body corporate.

Who does not need a business licence?

You do not require a business licence in order to conduct activities involving a class of arms item if you are:

- a firearms licence holder who offers commercial hunting guide services, and during the provision of those services supply no more than 6 firearms to 1 or more clients at any one time
- a member of a shooting club who engages in the selling, hiring, lending, or supplying of firearms to club members or on club premises where:
  - the approval of the management committee of the club or a majority vote of club members has been received; and
  - the revenue from the sale, hire, lending, or supply of the firearms is used for the benefit of the club.

Who can apply?

To apply for a business licence you need to meet the following criteria:

- you are sixteen years of age or older; OR
- you are at least eighteen years of age if you are also applying for an endorsement to deal in restricted firearms, and / or restricted magazines; AND
- you must hold a current New Zealand firearms licence.

What you need to do

1. Complete this application form

Did you know you can now complete your application online at MyFirearms? MyFirearms is our new secure online portal where you can apply and pay for your licensing and most endorsements online. You can even save your application and complete it later. Visit www.firearmssafety.govt.nz to find out more. Need help? Call the Registry and Services Team on 0800 844 431 / 09 302 6500.

Please ensure you read the following carefully before you begin your application for a business licence. An incomplete form will cause delays in processing your application.

Download the application form to your computer or device and enter the information requested.

Important Note

Do not use an Internet browser or Apple's Preview application to open this form. Please save the form to your device and open it using Adobe Acrobat Reader. If the form is completed using a browser, the entered information may be lost if you click on the 'back' button or if you try to save it.

Print out and sign the completed form or print out a blank form and handwrite your responses.

2. Provide confirmation that the proposed business has a sound financial basis

If you are a senior manager of a body corporate or a business owner applying for, or renewing, a business licence you need to provide confirmation from your accountant or business advisor that your business has a viable business plan and that the business is financially sound.

3. Pay the fee

Pay the application fee at a New Zealand PostShop and obtain a receipt to include with your application. There are separate fees for a business licence application and the application for endorsement/s to a business licence.

4. Get the required documents

Please include the following alongside your application form:

- a copy of the PostShop receipts of your licence application, renewal, and/or endorsement fees
- two identical passport style photos (see the Proof of Identity - Photographs section of this application form)
- copies of the documents that prove your identity (see the Proof of Identity section of this application form) and a document confirming your current residential address
- copies of other required documents, such as the letter from your accountant or other documents as indicated in the application form.

5. Submit your application to Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand

Submit your printed application form and required documentation via courier to: National Services Team, Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand, Level 3, 210 Federal Street, Auckland 1010, New Zealand.

What you will need to apply

To assist you in the process, please ensure you read the following carefully before you commence your application for a new business licence and/or endorsement, or renewal of your business licence (and endorsement/s). An incomplete form will cause delays in processing your application.

In your application, you will need to be able to:

- identify the activities you wish to conduct and the class(es) of firearms with which you wish to conduct the activities for the next 12 months,
- supply names and contact details for referees who will be interviewed by Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand as to your suitability to hold a business licence,
- provide details of people who are business associates, or work at, or may have free or unsupervised access to, your place of business and any premises where you intend to store firearms,
- provide a letter from your accountant or business advisor confirming the business is being established or is operating with a sound financial structure,
- provide certificate(s) from your health practitioner which are related to any conditions,
- if applying as a senior manager of a body corporate supply details of:
  - the record-keeping systems used to ensure compliance with legislation and regulatory requirements, and
  - the addresses of all premises and the details of the business licence holder managing at each of the premises,
- attend an interview with a member of Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand to discuss your suitability to hold a business licence.

If you need more space than provided in each section of the application form, record the additional information in the appendices near the end of the form, noting the relevant section reference. If you need to attach documents or additional information to your application, please include your full name (and firearms licence number if you already have one) with each attachment.

If you need help completing this application form, please call the Registry and Services Team on 0800 844 431. Further information is available on our website www.firearmssafety.govt.nz.

What happens next

Once your application has been received, Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand will perform further checks to see whether you are fit and proper to be a business in firearms. This includes firearms such as restricted firearms, magazines such as restricted magazines, parts such as restricted parts, airguns, pistols, restricted weapons or pistol carbine conversion kits - as appropriate to your business.

When Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand are assessing whether you are a fit and proper person to have a business licence, we will consider your overall character and business background including information provided by you and your referees, as well as other information held or obtained by Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand.

This includes considering:

- whether you have the competencies and resources to carry on the business activity or activities for which the business licence is sought,
- any convictions,
- whether you have a sound knowledge of firearms,
- your understanding of the legal obligations of a holder of a business licence and complying with all requirements of the Arms Act and Arms Regulations,
- your understanding of the legal obligations of a holder of a firearms licence, including an understanding of the endorsements that may be made on a firearms licence, and being able to provide advice to licence holders and the public on those obligations,
- any other matters Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand considers relevant.

In the case of an applicant who is a senior manager of a body corporate, applying for a business licence to enable the body corporate to carry on a business activity, Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand will also consider:

- whether the body corporate has appropriate record-keeping systems and other systems to comply with the requirements of this Act and any regulations made under this Act,
- if the body corporate operates from two or more places of business there will be, at each of those places, a manager who has appropriate oversight and control of the proposed business activity or activities to be carried on at that place,
- any other matters Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand considers relevant.

Note: Other matters Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand may consider relevant include (but are not limited to):

- ability to safely and competently possess large numbers of firearms, ability to run their business with due skill and care, and
- actively overseeing the business activities with appropriate policies and procedures, and
- managing firearms stocks responsibly and storing all firearms securely.

You will need to:

- attend an interview with Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand to discuss your application and determine if you are a fit and proper person to operate a firearms business,
- show your secure storage facilities are suitable for the proposed activities and the classes of arms items held for those activities.

Identity documents

You must provide documentation to prove your identity.

If you have a New Zealand firearms licence or business licence, you must provide proof of:

Current New Zealand Firearms Licence OR current New Zealand business licence

Proof of address dated within the last 3 months (e.g. bank statement or utilities bill with your name and address)

If you are in the process of renewing for a New Zealand firearms licence, you must provide one of the following:

New Zealand Passport
Overseas Passport
New Zealand driver licence
Police identity card
New Zealand Defence Force photo identification
Kiwi Access Card (18+ Card)
Identity document issued by New Zealand government

AND one of the following:

Birth Certificate
Citizenship certificate
Permanent resident document
Identity document issued by secondary or tertiary institution
Educational records or certificates
Professional or trade association membership certificate
Other

Note: Do not send original documents. You must bring the original copies of these documents to your interview. All identity documents must be current, unless stated otherwise. Do not staple copies to other pages. If you are 16 or 17 and don't have the required documentation, you can request your parent or legal guardian to write a declaration to support your application.

Photograph

You need to have two identical, good quality photographs available to include in your application that are a good likeness of yourself. The photographs must meet the minimum requirements as set out in Arms Regulations 2026.

The photos must:

- have been taken within 12 months of the submission of your application
- be a full front view of your face, head, and shoulders with the head filling most of the photograph
- be of you without a hat or head covering (except where your religion requires you to wear a hat or head covering)
- have a plain, light-coloured background
- be colour

Photographs on printed photographic paper, delivered or supplied by post:

- must be on good quality paper and measure 45mm x 35mm untrimmed.

Note: Failure to provide photographs of an acceptable standard will result in your application being delayed. A scanned copy of a photograph is not acceptable. Passport photos from commercial outlets will typically meet these requirements. When submitting a printed application, do not attach the photos to the form with paper clips or staples.

Fees

Applicants for a business licence or those applying to renew an existing licence must pay the appropriate fee(s) at the time of making the application.

Applicants are required to:

- pay the business licence application fee

For information on current fees, go to the Apply for a business licence page on our website.

Licence duration

- A first-time business licence will be valid for one year from date of issue.
- A second business licence (or first-time renewal) remains valid for one year from the date of issue.
- A third time or any subsequent business licence will continue in force for five years from the date of issue. Business licence holders who have not had their business licence revoked during the previous two years will be eligible for a five-year renewal.

Place of business firearms inventory security

Please provide details for the location where you conduct your business (Place of business provided in the Business details section) AND any other storage location where you store any other firearms and ammunition the business may possess. All addresses will be assessed by Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand during the review of your application for a business licence, or renewal of your business licence.

Security requirements for business premises are set out in the Arms Act 2026, and in the Arms Regulations 2026. For guidance on the secure storage of firearms and ammunition, please refer to the Firearms Secure Storage Guidance document on the Firearms Safety and Education New Zealand website.

Body corporate senior managers must complete this Section for the place of business from which they ordinarily conduct business.
