- Please read section 43A(3) of the Arms Act 1983 for laws relating to mail order or internet sales of arms items or ammunition.
- New Zealand has a Firearms Registry. If you're a firearms licence holder, you have until 24 June 2028 to register your firearms. However, there are activating circumstances when you're required to provide information to the Registry within a shorter time frame. To find out how and when to register your firearms, go to firearmssafety.govt.nz/registry
- This form is used to apply for approval of the sale and purchase of restricted parts by mail order or on the internet.
- In addition, where purchasing by mail order or on the internet, the item must be delivered by the courier as agreed or specified by Police.
- You may not take possession of any restricted part unless you have:
 - a current firearms or business licence, and
 - a current firearms endorsement appropriate to the item being purchased.
